

SOUTHWARK LEGAL ADVICE NETWORK
working together to provide high quality advice

Learn how to bid online for a property with Homesearch

Southwark Law Centre and Southwark Citizens Advice Bureau are running sessions at Bermondsey library where trained volunteers will assist people who are registered with Southwark Council to use Homesearch to find accommodation.

No need to make an appointment, just turn up on Friday mornings between 10am and 1pm.

The Blue Anchor Library
Market Place, Bermondsey SE16
Every Friday 10am -1pm
(first session Friday 4th February)

Applicants who bid online have more information, more flexibility and can even reduce their wait!

- Learn how to join the shortest queue and reduce waits
- Get more information on the location and type of property
- Bid at your convenience, no need for the magazine

For more information about advice services in Southwark please see www.southwarkadvice.org.uk